The Members of the Company at their Extraordinary General Meeting held on 20th April, 2006 approved by way of an Ordinary Resolution under Section 293(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956 borrowings over and above the aggregate of paid-up share capital and free reserves of the Company provided that the total amount of such borrowings together with the amounts already borrowed and outstanding at any point of time shall not be in excess of ₹ 50,000 crore (Rupees fifty thousand crore only). The Board of Directors were also authorized to create mortgage and/or charge on any or all of the Company's assets to secure the Company's borrowings in terms of Section 293(1)(a) of the Companies Act, 1956.

In terms of the provisions of Section 180(1)(c) of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act'), the Board of Directors shall not, except with the consent of the Company by way of Special Resolution, borrow money together with the money already borrowed, if any (apart from temporary loans obtained/to be obtained from the Company's Bankers in the ordinary course of business) exceeding the aggregate of the paid-up share capital and free reserves.

Further, Section 180(1)(a) of the Act provides that the Board of Directors shall not sell, lease or otherwise dispose off the whole or substantially the whole of the undertaking(s) of the Company except with the consent of the Company accorded by way of a Special Resolution. As the documents to be executed between the lenders/security holders/ trustees for the holders of the said securities and the Company may contain provisions to take over substantial assets of the Company in certain events, it is necessary to pass a Special Resolution under Section 180(1)(a) of the Act for creation of charges/ mortgages/ hypothecations etc.

Further, as per the Circular No. 04/2014 dated 25th March, 2014 issued by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, the resolution(s) passed earlier under Section 293(1)(a) and 293(1)(d) of the Companies Act, 1956 will remain valid for a period of one year from the date of notification of Section 180 of the Act i.e. upto 11th September, 2014.

None of the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel of the Company or their respective relatives is concerned or interested in the resolution(s) set out at Item Nos. 1 & 2.

The Board commends the resolutions for approval of the Members as Special Resolution(s).

Item No. 3

In terms of the provisions of Section 186 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act'), where giving of any loan or guarantee or providing any security or the acquisition of securities exceeds (a) sixty percent of the aggregate of the paid-up capital and free reserves and securities premium account, or (b) hundred percent of its free reserves and securities premium account, whichever is more, prior approval of the shareholders by means of passing a Special Resolution shall be necessary.

The Company operates some of its businesses through subsidiaries, joint ventures, affiliates and associates. The funding obligations of such subsidiaries, joint ventures and associates are funded primarily out of the Company's cashflows. Any such infusion of funds by the Company into its subsidiary(ies)/joint venture(s) / associate(s) or corporate guarantee given by the Company to secure the borrowings made by the subsidiary(ies)/ joint venture(s)/associate(s), are done by means of a resolution passed by the Board of Directors or the Finance Committee of the Board which does not require shareholders' approval as per the provisions of Section 186 of the Act, as long as the limits specified under Section 186 of the Act are not exceeded.

In view of the future requirements of business and ensuring the Company's funding obligations towards the subsidiary(ies)/joint venture(s)/associate(s) or other person(s), it is proposed to obtain the shareholders approval upto an amount of ₹ 20,000 crore (Rupees twenty thousand crore only), which amount, as on date, is higher than the limits specified in Section 186 of the Act.

Such an approval can be obtained once a year for all the offers and invitation made for such NCDs during the year.

In order to augment long-term resources for business needs through issue of NCDs including sub-ordinated debentures, bonds and/or other debt securities to banks/ financial institutions/mutual funds/body corporate(s) and/or other persons, the Company may offer or invite subscription for NCDs including sub-ordinated debentures, bonds and/or other debt securities, in one or more series and/or tranches through private placement on preferential basis with authority to the Board to determine the terms and conditions, including the issue price, interest rate, repayment, security or otherwise, as it may deem expedient and to do all such acts, deeds, matters and things in connection therewith and incidental thereto as the Board in its absolute discretion deems fit. Accordingly, approval of the Members is being sought by way of a Special Resolution.
